OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

General Comments

The year was again a busy one and the help that could be given was limited by money, time and manpower. Increasingly more time is being spent fundraising to the detriment of rehoming. Vet fees, boarding costs and behavioural charges are the main drain on funds. The Trustees continued to ensure that expenditure in meeting the Charity's objectives are matched by income and that the Charity remains focused on its mission.

There are more dogs that need rehoming than the Charity can deal with due to its limited resources. Therefore, it has to prioritise the most urgent cases such as when an owner has died and the dog has nowhere to go or where a dog has been neglected or mistreated. Other reasons are but not limited to marriage/partnership breakdowns; emigration, ill health, evictions, financial problems. The majority of dogs rehomed by the Charity are much loved by their owners and only sad changes in circumstances resulting in rehoming. However there were a few welfare cases dealt with by the Charity due in the main part to ignorance as opposed to cruelty. Most of the welfare cases needed careful negotiation the aim being to remove the dog to a place of safety as quickly as possible.

Members of the public now find it easy to get dogs off the Internet from the UK or abroad without the relevant checks being undertaken on the dogs. Not surprisingly sometimes the dog is not what they expected and the dog becomes unwanted. This trend is noted across all breeds and is putting pressure on all UK dog rescue Charities.

The majority of Labradors rehomed were black, not surprising as black is the breed's dominant gene. This was followed by yellow and then chocolate. There was a noticeable increase in senior dogs requiring rehoming. Also, there was an increase in dogs needing rehoming due to their owner's health problems, which can have an adverse impact on the dog's behaviour.

Over the year there has been a visible increase in dogs with behavioural problems. The mental health of dogs is as important as physical health. Mental health problems can impact on the physical health of a dog. The problem is often related to human physical and mental abuse. Therefore with such cases the Charity tries to help by providing veterinary and behavioural care. Indeed, the Charity has and continues to care for such dogs in Boarding Kennels. Rehabilitating a dog that has behavioural problems is a slow process. Hence they can be in kennels for long periods while undergoing behavioural training with an experienced Behaviourist in order to regain their trust in humans and make them suitable for rehoming.

Rehoming

During the year the Charity rehomed 68 dogs to new homes. Most of the dogs were adopted straight from their old home to their new home. Adoptees must agree to dual ownership with the Charity and the Charity is listed as a secondary owner on the Chip Form. This ensures that the dog cannot be passed on.

Each application for a dog is rigorously vetted with the requirement for a Vet reference, interview, character reference and home suitability check. Care is taken to ensure the dog and the person adopting the dog are well matched to ensure that the dog is going to a stable, loving, safe and secure home. All adopted dogs get lifetime support on issues such as feeding, health advice and training. The Charity will take a dog back if there is a problem that cannot be overcome by on-going support.

During the year 5 of the rehomed dogs went to search teams. Several of these dogs have now graduated to become fully-fledged search dogs whilst others are still under training. These dogs are used in areas such as drugs, explosives, cadaver and search and rescue. These dogs were judged to be happier in a working environment having the necessary drive and intelligence for these demanding roles. These search teams maintain close supporting links with the Charity.

The Charity prevented around 90 Labradors from being rehomed by providing direct advice and support to owners. In cases where behaviour was an issue the Charity provided free training sessions with a qualified behaviourist. In these ways owners were able to keep a much loved dog.

Long Term Fostering

During the reporting period the Charity supported 32 dogs in long term foster care. These are dogs that are difficult to rehome predominately due to age and/or long-term health problems. The Charity covers the cost of food and veterinary care for these dogs. However, 7 of these dogs were successfully rehomed but sadly 5 of the dogs were euthanized due to quality of life issues.

Boarding

During the year 16 dogs were housed at Boarding Kennels, with 4 of the dogs long term. The main reasons for boarding dogs were behavioural issues, evictions or owner moving to property where dogs are not allowed.

Veterinary Care

During the reporting period 42 dogs were treated at the Vets, many on several occasions. The principal patients were the dogs in long term fostering the majority of which, as previously reported, have health issues.

Behavioural

22 dogs had behavioural sessions often over several sessions, with a qualified dog behaviourist. The main reason for this was to address behavioural issues before rehoming. In other cases sessions were undertaken to prevent dogs being put up for rehoming by their owners.

Support & Communications

The Charity has a very successful Web Site and Facebook Page, which helps raise the awareness of the Charity. The number of supporters/followers on Facebook increased to almost 81,000 and with heavy traffic on the web site. However changes made by Facebook has resulted in the public not now being able to see appeals/posts, which they could originally. Sadly the Charity is unable to pay for adverts or publicity to make them more visible.

There continues to be a steady demand from Labrador owners throughout the UK asking for advice and support on issues such as training and identification of reputable professional breeders.

The Charity continues to build and foster close working and support relationships with Veterinary Practices and Hospitals, Police and Prison Services and Search Teams.

The charity also continues to receive financial support and help from individuals, sponsors and donors, not only from the UK but worldwide.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The results for the year are reported in the financial statements.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The Charity has no formal reserve policy. It aims to maintain sufficient funds to cover expected running costs for a reasonable period and to meet any unusual items of expenditure. The number of dogs the Charity can help will always be related to the funds available.

Investment policy and objectives

Funds are held in a charitable status business account with a leading high street bank. The Charity does not invest funds in any other way.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Labrador Retriever Rescue Scotland SCIO

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2018 set out on pages seven to eleven.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
